Nancy Wynne Talks of the Tennis and Horse Show at Newport—Philadelphians at Races in Saratoga. Some Returning From Europe

THERE is great excitement in Newport this week, for the finals in tennis for the Davis Cup will be played at the Casino the latter part of the week. Craig Biddle, of this city and Newport, is chairman of the Casino and has been frantically busy arranging things. The Japanese tennis team, which beat India and won the right to meet the Australian team up there this week, arrived last night in Newport, and the Australians have been there for several days. Next week will see the opening of the Horse Show, and the parties for tennis and horse devotees are many and will finish the season with great gayety.

Among the Philadelphians who have taken boxes for the Horse Show next week are Mr. and Mrs. William Wannamaker, the Joe Wideners do not appear to be staying on for it, and I suppose Miss Julia Berwind will watch the show from her brother's box. She is a New York, you know. The Alexander Hamilton Rice has a box, and the Clarence Dolans, of this city, also will be entertaining during the week.

DID you hear that the Nick Biddies are being congratulated on the birth of a little daughter? This is their third child, and one cannot help feeling glad for the little one herself, for she could not have a more devoted mother than the beautiful Mrs. Biddle. She is just wrapped up in her children, though she has two other children. She is just wrapped up in her children, though she has two other children. She is just wrapped up in her children, though she has two other children.

I WAS interested the other day to hear of the birth in New York of a son and heir to the John Monroes. Mrs. Monroe was Adelaide Sedgwick, a daughter of Mrs. Harry Sedgwick, and sister of Aileen Sedgwick, who married one of the Taylors, of New York. Adelaide has often been on to visit and attended many of the balls here the year she came out. She was married in October, and has been living in New York.

I HEAR that the George Wideners and the Eddie Cassetts have been in Saratoga during the last few days and will stay through this week for the races. It appears there is a rather unusual program and the clubhouse and grounds about the tracks are gay with many people. There were 20,000 out to see the races on Saturday. Mrs. Widener, I am told, looked very stunning that afternoon in a gown of champagne-colored crepe de chine trimmed with exquisite black lace, and her large hat was trimmed with brown tulle.

IT DOES seem that more and more people are coming home every day now that the vacation days are nearly over again. To be sure, the time for most people to return is not until after Labor Day, but so many have their estates in the suburbs to come to, where they have all the comforts of home, with wonderful fresh vegetables from the garden and so many luxuries that it is a wonder they ever go away at all. I was interested to hear that Mrs. Ernest Law and her daughter and son, Mary and Ned, will arrive next Saturday at their home, Edgely, St. David's. They have been spending the summer abroad, having gone over some time in June. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Crozer Griffith will also return to their place in Upland on Saturday. They have been spending the summer at a camp in Maine somewhere, Mary Law is going up to Islesboro shortly after she comes home to stay with her sister, Mrs. Liv. Biddle.

PEGGY, aged six, felt rather bad the other day and was inclined to stay around the house and look sad. Mother noticed her and said, "Dearie, if you take a nice long walk and get some exercise you'll feel much better soon." Well, Peggy having by experience on many occasions found that mother knew best, got up and walked out into the garden and down through the orchard for a long distance. When she came back in about an hour her eyes were sparkling and her cheeks glowing. "I feel fine from that walk." And straightway she sat herself on a small chair near her mother and started to talk, and talked and talked continuously for nearly an hour while mother sewed. Finally as time was going on mother remarked casually, "Well, your walk not only did you good, but it seems to have done you some good, too. You've been talking ever since, haven't you?" "Yes," said Peggy. "I have, but I can be silent, too, mother, when it is necessary." NANCY WYNNE.

I Would Rather Walk Than Ride

"Since I discovered Cantilever Shoes, I prefer to walk. You've seen children run just because they were too vigorous and happy to move slowly. Cantilevers brought back to me that joy in walking."

Ordinary shoes, with a rigid strip of steel hidden in the shank, bind the muscles and restrict the movement of the foot so that much of the natural grace and freedom of walking is gone. But the Cantilever Shoe has a flexible shank. It bends WITH the foot. It encourages the free graceful movement of the foot. It strengthens the arch.

The last is sensible and becoming. It follows the outline of the foot, and it gives plenty of room for the toes. The special inner sole fits perfectly the foot, in a healthy position, with the foot pulling comfortably straight ahead. The feature, and the set of the smart medium heel, encourage correct posture.

For the best of comfortable walking, try your pair of Cantilevers the walking. Write from AAAA to E.
